– TSN 690 continues to be the official English-language radio voice of the Montreal Canadiens, delivering live coverage of every game – – French-language television coverage of the team continues on RDS –

MONTREAL (June 13, 2017) – TSN and the Montreal Canadiens announced today a comprehensive new regional broadcast rights agreement making TSN the official English-language broadcaster of the team beginning with the 2017-18 season. The new agreement sees TSN air a slate of games in the Montreal Canadiens' designated broadcast region, which spans Eastern and Northern Ontario, Québec, and Atlantic Canada. RDS continues to be the French-language home for Montreal Canadiens games.

TSN 690 in Montréal also renewed its agreement with the Canadiens, maintaining full radio broadcast rights and further extending the station's position as the team's official English-language radio voice. TSN 690 provides exclusive live broadcast coverage of all pre-season, regular season, and playoff games for its listeners.

"It is with great pride that we welcome the Montreal Canadiens back to TSN with an expansive slate of marquee games," said Stewart Johnston, President, Bell Media Studios and TSN. "The addition of the Canadiens to our schedule broadens even further our strong NHL hockey offering and is yet another example of the breadth and depth of our programming roster."

“We are very pleased to have entered a new partnership agreement with TSN for the Canadiens English television regional broadcasting rights,” said Geoff Molson, owner, president and CEO of the Montreal Canadiens. “This agreement with TSN is a testament to our commitment to provide our fans with a comprehensive and quality broadcast on English television for the foreseeable future.”

“The Montreal Canadiens are an iconic franchise with a very passionate fan base, and TSN 690 is proud to continue to provide comprehensive live coverage of all their games, as well as extensive pre-and post-game coverage and analysis,” said Chris Bury, Program Director, TSN Radio 690 in Montréal.

Further details, including channel placements and broadcast teams for TSN’s coverage of the Montreal Canadiens will be announced in the coming months.
