

Kristine Emmett
Vice-President, Human Resources – Bell Media, IT, and Network

As Vice-President, Human Resources, Kristine Emmett supports the performance culture and talent development within the Bell Media, IT, and Network business units.

Emmett was previously Vice-President of Organizational Development at Bell, where she led recruitment, performance and talent management, learning and development, diversity, and engagement. During her three years in this role, Emmett and her team implemented a number of new initiatives, including a welcome program for new hires, an enhanced team survey, and improved succession planning. She also spent seven years as head of Inspiring Leader Inc., where she worked with executives to enhance their careers and their team's performance, and previously served as a Vice-President of Sales and Marketing at Bell.