

MUCH: NEWSREADERS

MONDAY AT 10:45P ET

From the creative team behind the acclaimed, irreverent, Emmy®-winning comedy Childrens Hospital, and based upon the "Newsreaders" episodes which aired on that show, NEWSREADERS is a comedy series that satirizes the network television newsmagazine genre, bringing viewers inspiring and thought-provoking stories that are neither of those things. It's an absurd take on the format, a show that goes behind the stories nobody else thinks are stories - because they're not. The series explores the vital issues that actually don't affect us every day, from hard-hitting investigations to harder-hitting, heartwarming profiles, delivering unparalleled award-eligible reporting every week.
