

GOTHAM

Returns Midseason

“Gotham” has witnessed the emergence of the criminal landscape for which Gotham City is best known, with GCPD Detectives Jim Gordon (series star Ben McKenzie) and Harvey Bullock (series star Donal Logue) at the forefront of the fight against the most depraved and unhinged villains – Penguin (series star Robin Lord Taylor); Edward Nygma/The Riddler (series star Cory Michael Smith), Barbara Kean (series star Erin Richards), Tabitha Galavan (series star Jessica Lucas), as well as the future Catwoman, Selina Kyle (series star Camren Bicondova). While Gotham City fights for normalcy, a new hero will rise. After completing his training with the Temple Shaman (guest star Raymond J. Barry) and Ra’s al Ghul (new series regular Alexander Siddig), a young Bruce Wayne (series star David Mazouz) begins to assume responsibility for the city’s well-being. With the help of his ever-faithful butler Alfred Pennyworth (series star Sean Pertwee) and quiet support of Lucius Fox (series star Chris Chalk), he will step into this role, all while building up his public persona of carefree socialite to avoid any suspicion among Gotham’s citizens.

