

THE VOICE

CTV Two: Monday 8PM ET | s-NBC
CTV: Tuesday 8PM ET | s-NBC

The four-time Emmy Award-winning "The Voice" returns with the strongest vocalists from across the country invited to compete in the blockbuster vocal competition show's new season. The show's innovative format features three stages of competition: the blind auditions, the battle rounds, and finally, the live performance shows. During the blind auditions, the decisions from the coaches are based solely on voice and not on looks. The coaches hear the contestants perform, but they don't get to see them -- thanks to rotating chairs. If a coach is impressed by the contestant's voice, he/she pushes a button to select the contestant for his/her team. At this point, the coach's chair will swivel so that he/she can face the contestant he/she has selected. If more than one coach selects the talent, the power shifts to the contestant, who may choose which coach he/she wants to work with throughout the competition. Only one will be named "The Voice" -- and will receive the grand prize of a recording contract and $100,000.
