

LADYLIKE

SERIES PREMIERE JUNE 9

Your mother would define the term "ladylike" as the traditional way refined women behave. But on this weekly half hour hidden camera prank show, our group of pranksters will poke holes in that definition as they show the world how they think a lady should act. Ladylike takes the attitude and subject matter of Girl Code and steps out of the studio and onto the street where the cast will prank their friends and the unsuspecting public. Along the way they may even break down some social barriers and have fun the way only a real lady can!
